

Jesus Heals the Daughter of Jairus

Once when Jesus was teaching the crowds by the shore, an official named Jairus came to Jesus. He begged Jesus to go with him and heal his daughter who was very sick.

But while they were on their way, someone came from Jairus' house to say his daughter had died.

Jesus said,

“ 3 9 8 9 11
5 4 1 10
9 8 7 13
2 4 7 6 4 12 4 ”

When they got to the official's house, everyone was weeping. Jesus told them, "Why are you crying? The girl is not dead. She is asleep."

He went to the girl and taking her hand, said, "Little girl, get up." Jairus' daughter got up and walked around. Jesus said, "Give her something to eat." (Mk 5:21-24; 35-43).
