

Dear Parent and Sunday School student:

We sincerely hope you have been enjoying the Kings Kidz Radio Sunday School lessons. Sunday, June 28 was the last broadcast of the Bible Detective series and beginning Sunday, July 12, we will begin a new series, Super Heroes of the Bible.

In order for our recording team to adequately prepare for the new series and to allow everyone the opportunity to celebrate the July 4th holiday, the episode you will hear on Sunday, July 5 is a special broadcast. We think you will enjoy this special broadcast as much as you do the Sunday School lessons.

Stay tuned on July 12 as we introduce a very special character!

We look forward to resuming in person Sunday School but in the meantime, stay safe and have a great 4th of July holiday!
