

REVIEW QUESTIONS

1. What was the name of the city where Paul spent two years teaching in a school?
2. What did the sorcerers and magicians in Ephesus do with their expensive scrolls and books?
3. Why did the sorcerers and magicians in Ephesus burn their scrolls and books?
4. Why is it wrong to trust sorcery, horoscopes, witchcraft, and things like that?

REVIEW QUESTIONS

1. What was the name of the city where Paul spent two years teaching in a school? Ephesus
2. What did the sorcerers and magicians in Ephesus do with their expensive scrolls and books? Burned them
3. Why did the sorcerers and magicians in Ephesus burn their scrolls and books? They learned that God is the only real power.
4. Why is it wrong to trust sorcery, horoscopes, witchcraft, and things like that? Because only God has the real power and he wants us to trust in Him.